

The Interior Journal.

STANFORD, KY.

Friday Morning, October 19, 1917.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

GET THE Noiseless State at Chennault's. Old papers for sale at this office at 25c. per hundred.

Try Smith & Millers' variety of Cakes and Improved Light Bread.

New and splendid stock of Jewelry at Anderson & McRoberts.

WINDOW GLASS all sizes at the lowest prices at E. R. Chennault's.

CLACKS for every body. Prices from $2.25 to $10 at Chennault's.

BUY your Books, Paper, Pens, Ink and Pencils at E. R. Chennault's.

FRESH stock of lamps at low prices. Call on Anderson & McRoberts.

If you want a good Shot Gun, Ammunition, etc., go to Benson & Stagg's.

J. H. S. & H. SHANKS are just receiving and opening a new stock of goods.

Go to E. R. Chennault's for School Books. Large stock at publishers' prices.

CALL and see the largest stock of clocks ever brought to Stanford at Chennault's.

A good assortment of Spectacles at low prices, just received at Anderson & McRoberts.

J. H. S. & H. SHANKS have a full line of Clothing for Boys and Youths from 13 to 15 years of age.

SAVINGMANS, for Soda Ash and Rabbit's Foot for Soap making call on Anderson & McRoberts.

A beautiful assortment of the latest style Visiting Cards just received at this office. Twenty-five with your name printed on them for 25 cents.

CARSON & DODD are daily in receipt of Fresh Orders, which they serve to their customers in any style, in the most approved manner. Give them a call.

OUR Stock of School Books, Stationery, Copy Books, Pens, Ink and Paper is now complete in every way. Come and buy.

ANDERSON & McROBERTS.

SON, you always were round shouldered till Julius Winter & Co. Merchant Tailors S. E. Cor. 3d & Market Streets, Louisville, Ky. "Built you up." Never quit dealing there as long as you live.

MISS L. BEAZLEY wishes her friends and patrons to know that she keeps at all times new and fashionable Millinery Goods. Her place of business can be found by her sign "Millinery and Dress Making."

S. N. MATTHEWS, the best Merchant Tailor in Central Kentucky, has on hand, and is constantly receiving a splendid stock of goods for Fall and Winter wear. He works the best material only, and always guarantees a good fit.

WHY will you stint yourself to have a high tombstone erected after your death, when you can live long and happy by purchasing your clothes at Julius Winter & Co. S. E. Cor. 3d & Market Sts., Louisville, Ky., and at a very low price.

Go to Benson & Stagg's for Pure Drugs, Patent Medicines, Best Whiskies, Brandy and Wines for medicinal use. Miscellaneous and School Books. Stationery of all varieties. Pocket Knives, Seissors, Guns and Pistols. Cartridges, Powder, Shot, Caps, Fishing Tackle, Bait, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Cigars, Laundry and Tailor's Patterns and all of all colors and kinds. Prescriptions carefully filled at any hour day and night.

LOCAL NEWS.

Go to the Carson House for a good square meal.

FOR Fashionable Cloaks go to John H. Craig's.

TO-MORROW you can shoot your little partridge.

THE pill-buffers were here in force on Wednesday.

A NEW lot of Stores, Groceries, etc., at bottom prices at Warren & Evans.

CALL at J. N. Davis' and see the best set of Harness in the State for the money.

MARRIED—On yesterday, Mr. Wm. Guffy to Miss Susan Baugh. Their ages are 19 and 17.

FOR Dress Goods, Fringes, Silks, Satins and Velvets in all colors and shades, go to John H. Craig's.

FIFTEEN years ago, snow fell in this section the night of the 19th of October to the depth of seven inches.

A. A. WARREN is agent here for the Singer, the best Sewing Machine made. Samples on hand at the P. O.

GRAND opening of Millinery Goods every week by Miss Annie L. Fisher at the Fashionable Establishment of John H. Craig.

WARREN & EVANS have only a few of the first class load of wagons left. They go like hot cakes. Another car load (25 wagons) will be ordered by them to-day.

THE crowd in town this week in attendance at Court, were very properly purchased hundreds of dollars worth of goods from Hayden Bros., because they always get bargains there.

GRACE BOND—It may interest those who supposed Mr. Wm. Kennedy would resist the law, to know that he has given a good bond for his appearance when the Madison cases against him shall come up for trial.

THE Danville package of this paper did not reach its destination till Saturday evening, although mailed as it ever is on Friday morning. We give fair warning to the careless post official that his days are numbered! We intend to kill him!

If anybody wants to buy a cheap, durable and pretty carpet, our advice is to them, go to Hayden Bros' first, and look at their extensive stock. If you can't find suited there, you are harder to please than the readers of a good paper, like the INTERIOR JOURNAL, ought to be.

DEED—At the home of her father, Mr. Sowell W. Givens, near Shelby City, on Saturday morning last, Mrs. Nellie Forsythe, she had been a constant sufferer for a long time and death was indeed a relief. A long concourse of sorrowing friends followed the remains to Buffalo Cemetery and there deposited them to await the happy resurrection that is promised to those who serve and honor Him here.

A BUCKEYE Grain Drill at Wholesale price for sale by Warren & Evans.

FARMERS wanting the best Whose Drill will find it at Campbell & Miller's.

LICENSE was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. Lindsay Coffman to Miss Kathryn F. Vaughn.

BRIDAL outfits made on short notice at the Fashionable Dress Making and Millinery Establishment of John H. Craig.

FOUNTAIN—In the Court House yard, a nickel-plated bell, which the fair owner can get by coming forward, proving property, paying charges, etc.

FINE POTATO YIELD—Mr. John McRoberts raised this season 110 bushels of potatoes on about a quarter of an acre of land. The potatoes are of the Early Rose variety, and are very large and fine.

THE negro Jim Mullins, who was arrested some time since, charged with stealing brandy from Bowen Camden and selling it without license was tried before the U. S. Court in Louisville this week and sent to the Penitentiary for two years.

It should be borne in mind by the purchasers of boots, that the best is the cheapest. We utter a truth when we say that the boots for sale by Hayden Bros. are the best ever brought to this market. In point of cheapness, too, they are not to be excelled.

J. N. DAVIS has now in stock the largest and best assortment of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Notions, Lexington Jeans and Yarns in the market. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Also complete stock of Groceries, Queensware, Glassware, Lamps, etc.

LADIES' CLOAKS—Severance and Dudderar have bought direct from the manufacturers in New York, and will open the last of next week, an elegant stock of Ladies' Cloaks. Those intending to buy would do well to wait and examine these goods.

WHEN a man can buy an excellent undershirt of merino fabric for 35 cents, he ought never to complain that he can't afford to keep warm in winter. Hayden Bros. have just opened a second invoice of this popular and desirable brand, and they sell many of them every day.

THE Presbyterian Church, the oldest edifice of the kind in Stanford, is undergoing some much needed repairs. In addition to others, the dilapidated ceiling is to be replaced by a new and higher one. The rickety old wooden fence that enclosed the building is to be replaced by a handsome iron one.

We are sure that if our lady and gentleman readers would consult their best interests in the purchase of their Fall and Winter clothing, they would go to Hayden Bros. and buy their underwear. These goods are of the most popular manufacture and give entire satisfaction. They have had a fine trade in such goods this week.

POUND PARTY—The citizens of Crab Orchard will have a "Pound Party" at the Chapel at Tarrant College, Friday night 19th of this month. The public is invited and it is expected that every one who attends will bring one pound of some article with his or her name on the package. The whole to be sold at auction, and the proceeds used to purchase instruments for the Crab Orchard Cornet Band. Mrs. S. F. H. Tarrant has our thanks for a complimentary invitation.

DIED—On Monday, after an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Mr. A. P. Pendleton. Her funeral was preached by Rev. G. O. Barnes, and was the most affecting we ever listened to. As he described, as he only he can, the grand triumphal entry into the presence of the Holy One, by those who had confessed and loved Him here, there was scarcely a dry eye in the church, and several persons improved the occasion by then accepting Christ as their Savior, the afflicted husband being among the number.

PERSONAL—Miss Lucy Hocker and her friend, Miss Mary Oldham, of Madison, again delight their numerous friends with their presence. Mr. A. A. Warren, wife and Miss Jennie Carson are spending the week in Louisville. Mr. Warren went as delegate to the Grand Lodge of Master Masons. Dr. Lee R. Yates is also in Louisville, as representative of the Royal Arch Masons. Mrs. John McRoberts and Dr. Lee Hoffman have gone on a visit to relatives in Peabody, Kansas. Col. J. E. McFerran, of Danville, makes up a pleasant trip this week. Mr. Judge Owsley, of Lancaster, and Mrs. Gen. Granger, of Washington, were in town Monday and Tuesday. Mr. A. M. Feland and wife have returned from their visit to Louisville, etc. Miss Lucy Burton is here on a visit. Miss Jennie Wright, of Nicholasville, is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Buford. Capt. J. S. Morrison, for a long time Division Engineer of the C. & S. R. R., with headquarters at Hustonville, will leave next week for Fayetteville, N. C. The Captain has made many friends in this vicinity, who will regret his departure. Mr. C. S. Nield, editor of the Harrodsburg Observer, and A. B. Elkin, of the Lancaster Alpha, spent the day here Sunday.

THE CHANGERS—This organization, which has, apparently, slumbered in this locality for some time, has received a new impetus. The mutual insurance plan, whereby a member who pays a small initiation fee can have the benefit of a reliable insurance on his or her life, has given it a new life, and the members are taking hold of it with avidity. On the death of a member, the sum of $100 to the Treasury, one dollar of which goes to the family of the deceased, the balance to defray expenses of collection, etc. The amount that the member insures will receive is governed by the number of those insured at the time of his death. The Lodge at this place, almost to a man, has taken advantage of the plan, and numbers of other farmers are joining the order that they may also profit by it. Last Saturday a larger attendance of the Stanford Lodge was had than for a long time past, and three or four influential ladies and gentlemen were initiated into the Order. At noon the sisters of the Grange set one of their characteristic dinners, which, thanks to their hospitality, was greatly enjoyed by a number of persons not connected with the Order. We are indebted to Master Jas. A. Harris, Mrs. Will H. Hays, Mr. P. L. Simpson, and others, for special courtesies, which we assure them were highly appreciated.

Mr. Joe H. Rott arrived from Texas with the dead body of his son, Wesley, last Friday, which was, after some very appropriate remarks at the grave by Mr. Barnes, laid to rest in Buffalo Cemetery. Mr. Rott is looking well, and is much pleased with Texas and his own prospects.

We thought we had seen all of the pretty clocks in the market last week. And so we had, but those just received from New York by Hayden Bros. yesterday are ahead of anything our eyes have yet beheld. Ladies, they are the loveliest things you ever dreamed of, and the styles are entirely new and different from anything in this market.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES—The business of the Fall Term of this Court was commenced on Monday last by the swearing in of the Grand Jury and a most comprehensive and finely worded charge to it by Judge Owsley. All the crimes known in the decalog were noticed, but he was particularly explicit in regard to the infernal and cowardly practice of carrying concealed weapons, now so extensively indulged in. Judging from the looks of the Jury they appreciated the address and will do their utmost to fulfill their oath to a letter. They are as follows: Dr. T. B. Montgomery, (foreman), Woodson Ferrill, Jas. Robinson, W. M. Higgins, Patrick Napier, T. T. Davies, J. D. Bastin, Thos. Robinson, James Pepples, A. L. Hale, T. M. White, Jno. G. Smith, J. E. Wright, Alex. Hicks, J. M. Sibold, Fielding Thurmond.

The following gentlemen compose the Petit Jury: A. K. Denny, S. H. Baughman, John White, Peter Carter, Samuel Dudderar, Samuel Cowan, J. Emory, Jas. Paxton, M. N. Depaux, Wm. Murphy, George G. Boone, Richard Cobb, Adam Carpenter, D. B. Bowman, Harry Dunn, Cyrus Jones, George King, James Moore, J. A. Harris, J. M. Cooper, A. S. Jones, R. G. Gover, Wm. Burton and R. W. Givens.

Besides our Stanford delegation, which will compare favorably with the number in any portion of the country, we notice a number of visiting lawyers. Among them are Messrs. Geo. Denny, Jr., G. W. Dunlap, R. M. & W. O. Bradley, R. L. Tomlinson, and R. D. Lusk of Lancaster; P. B. Thompson, Sr., of Harrodsburg; P. B. Jacobs, J. B. McFerran and J. S. VanWinkle of Danville, and Judge Higgins, F. E. Bobbitt and W. O. Hanson, of Crab Orchard, Sam'l Burdett, of Mt. Vernon.

Wm. Foster, charged with retailing ardent spirits, two cases, confessed a judgment of $20 and costs in each case.

Sidon Moore, for carrying concealed weapons was fined $25 and ordered to jail for 10 days to pay for the privilege.

Emmanuel Mitchell, although not present in the flesh, was tried for assault and battery and fined $100.

John Rott broke the peace and was assessed $25 to assist in mending it.

William Spratt, the same about whom possibly those famous lines rendered in "Mother Goose's Melodies" were written, was charged with trespass. He was forgiven on the payment of $2 and costs.

David Locket, colored, who killed another colored man named Yous, in 1875, was tried on a charge of manslaughter and sent to the Penitentiary for 18 months. This case had been tried before and resulted in a hung jury.

John Ferrell carried concealed weapons but the jury couldn't be convinced that he had the right to do so and fined him in one case $50 and 15 days in jail, and in the other $25 and 10 days in jail.

W. S. Myers, who about two years ago struck a man named Egbert, in or near a church and was then fined $70 by the local Court, appealed his case and the jury reduced the fine to $40.

Miss Rebecca Hammonds, a female of loose virtue was fined $75 for keeping a disorderly house. Miss Rebecca did not put in an appearance.

Hiram Hiatt, charged with carrying concealed weapons was acquitted.

George Saunders, accused of a breach of the peace was also acquitted.

The case of A. G. Cash for murder was called on and continued till 10th day of term. The trial of Ira Logan for the shooting of the Gray Owl in Hustonville, in October 1875, was in progress at the adjournment of the Court last evening.

The case of Wm. Martin for the killing of Mr. Sampson is next on the docket and will be called this morning.

Judge Owsley tells us that it is likely the Court will be in session three weeks.

RELIGIOUS.

Paris now puts in a claim for Mr. Barnes to come to them.

The Synod of Kentucky is in session this week in Covington.

Turkish women do not pray; they are not regarded as responsible beings, or as having souls.

The report of the Presbyterian Board of Education states that of the 5,733 churches of the denomination 948 are vacant.

The Mt. Sterling Democrat says Elder Knowles Shaw has received into the church 11,253 during his ministry of 18 years.

The Bible is being printed at the rate of more than a million copies every year, or five copies for every minute of working time.

The Methodist of Virginia and Maryland are to be appealed to for contributions to build a monument to the late Rev. Dr. Duncan. The sum wanted is $50,000.

The projected meeting conducted by Elds. J. K. and Marshall Reed, at Hall's Gap is still in progress. There have been some 15 or 20 additions to the Church.

Perhaps this item should be put in the religious column but it's about a preacher. The Rev. Alfred Thompson, a Methodist preacher at Elgin, Ill., has just been sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary for stealing money from the wife of a Baptist Missionary.

Freeland Buckner, who was once pastor of the Baptist church of this place, and who left here about 20 years ago, is now a missionary among the Creeks and other civilized Indians of the Indian Territory. We learn that he has founded an association of thirty churches and three thousand members.

Rev. T. L. Baird, Secretary of the publication Committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church has been acquitted at Richmond, Va., on a charge of embezzlement, there being no evidence that he had appropriated any of the money. He was about $20,000 behind on his accounts, due alone to his financial management, which sum has been since made up by prominent members of his church.

To the surprise and regret of the mighty host of people who have learned to love Mr. Barnes and his glorious meetings, he announced Thursday night of last week that the meeting was at an end. The next day, however, he was so earnestly petitioned by both saint and sinner to labor with us yet a little longer, that he consented to preach on Sunday three times, as usual, and let the developments of the day decide his future action. The Court-house was filled at each meeting during the day, and at night it was estimated that over two hundred people turned away, unable to get even standing room. There were ten confessions on Sunday, and the meetings have been continued at night with, if possible, a greater interest than ever. We believe the correct number of the confessions up to this time (Thursday) is 294, while some make it as high as 303. May the glorious work continue.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP NOTES.

A Todd county farmer raised 1,700 lbs. of tobacco on one acre.

Mr. G. W. Alford bought this week, a carload of hogs at 41 cents.

Mr. Adam Pence, Jr., sold to J. M. Smith, 9 head of common butcher cattle at 21 cents.

Mr. E. P. Woods, of Lincoln, sold to Mr. L. W. Hutchinson, of Garrard, a pair of 3-year old mules for $220.

Uncle Jerry Maxwell arrived yesterday with 50 head of the finest cattle he has ever brought from Tennessee.

Common to fair cattle, of which there were some 300 on the Danville market last Monday, sold from 36 to 41c.

Best amber wheat sold in Cincinnati at $1.35 per bushel for white; common to best led brings from $1.20 to $1.27.

Mr. D. S. Jones and his son Mr. H. C. Jones, will leave on Monday for Missouri with a fine lot of thoroughbred cattle.

The late purchaser of the "Metro" farm of 323 acres near Danville, sold it last week for $32,000, a profit of $2,000.

Brown Sentinel, a promising young trotter, broke a blood vessel and dropped dead on the Lexington race track, last Saturday.

R. B. Groom, another prominent Clark county man has failed. His liabilities are stated at $300,000 with assets of about $80,000.

MISSISS, G. K. NOLAND and G. P. Bright have bought the right to sell the Tennessee Bee Hive in 82 counties of this State. They expect to go to work at once.

SALE OF HOGS—Dr. J. R. Prowell, of Newtown, sold to Alex. Oler 49 hogs at $4.75 per cent. Forty-five of the number averaged 330 lbs.—(Georgetown Times).

Mr. Bennett Cloyd sold to J. C. Johnson 55 head New York cattle at 5 cents. They averaged 1550 pounds. These are the same class of cattle that recently sold at 51 cents.

In Cincinnati cattle sell all the way from 25 to 5 cents per pound. Hogs from $4.25 to $5.85 per hundred. Sheep in demand at from 21 to 41 and Lambs 31 to 41 cents.

Mr. Woodson Ferrill found a fine mare of his, valued at $200, dead in his barn-yard the other morning. He does not know the cause of her death, says the animal was well the evening previous.

Mr. D. S. Jones has sold his farm lying in the Mt. Salem neighborhood, to his brother, Major S. Jones, on conditions, for $20 per acre. In the event the sale is closed, Mr. Jones will move to Missouri, much to the regret of his countrymen, who admire him for his many sterling qualities.

To say that Mr. Jones has sold his horse "Fraud" to New York parties for a price not given, is one of the most fraudulent and common so-called news items that ever get in the papers.—(Courier Journal).

There's our sentiments too, Mr. Logan, and we have always made it a rule not to perpetrate such a "fraud" on the community.

Last year Mr. J. A. Harris received from the Patent Office about 2 gallons of Winter white shirt, which he sowed broadcast on land that had been in corn. He realized from it a little over six bushels of very beautiful wheat, all of which he has again sown. He expects by next season to have enough to dispose of a portion of it to his neighbors for seed.

THREE TRACTS OF LAND FOR SALE—One containing 450 acres, situated on the Lexington pike 11 miles from Lancaster, and of as good quality as any in Garrard county; also a tract of about 160 acres, about 6 miles from Lancaster, and another tract of about 117 acres, lying in Lincoln county, and adjoining the lands of Greenberry Bright. Address John S. Gill, and J. H. Bruce, Lancaster, Ky.

GEORGETOWN COURT DAY—About 400 cattle the market, and prices ranging from 31 to 41 cents. Thirty head of feed-cows sold at 4 cents, and 28 yearlings at $23. There were about 200 green mules on the market, which sold at prices ranging from $40 to $75 per head. Broke mules brought from $65 to $125 per head. There were a great many common horses on the market at low figures. Prices ranged from $26 to $80.

DANVILLE COURT DAY—Sales held up very well considering the drought. There were some good feeding cattle on the market weighing from 1000 to 1200 lbs., bringing 41 to 42 cents per pound. I sold 8 calves, common, at $15 per head; 10 1000 pound cattle, $40; 3 heifer calves, $10.90; 15 2-year olds at 41 cents per pound; 9 steer calves, $18.50; 1 yoke of oxen, $107; 1 do, $85; 16 common steers, $27.50; 1 yearling mule, $47.35; Horses no go. H. T. Bush, Auctioneer.

In Lexington the prices for stock ranges as follows: Milch cows are in active demand, selling at $25 for common to grade. Fat hogs, to weigh 300 pounds and upwards, 41 to 42c; stock hogs worth 5c and upward; mountain ewes worth per quality, $2.50 to $3.50 per head; best grazing and feeding steers sell all the way from 41 to 5c, and the demand fully up to the supply; weaning mules are selling from $10 to $15 per head higher than since the war, bringing from $45 to $55; for aged mules, trade active, the better grade selling from $125 to $150 for well broken stock; toppy geldings and mares in active demand, and selling all the way from $100 to $300.

THE LOUISVILLE LIVE STOCK MARKET.—Cattle—The market to-day was about 10 lower than last Monday's report, and closed rather dull, at the following quotations: Extra shippers, $4.50; best butchers, $3.50; medium, to good, $2.75; 3 25c.

common to medium, $2.50; thin rough steers and poor cows, $1.50; 2 50c. Hogs—The hog market was rather dull to-day, and closed at the following quotations: Best hogs, $4.75; with only one car load sold at $5; stockers, $4.50; 4 65c; Sheep and Lambs—Extra sheep, $3.50; 4 50c; common to medium, $2.75; 3 25c; Lambs, extra, $3.50; 4 50c; common to medium, $3.25; 3 25c. Receipts to-day—Cattle, 907; Hogs, 2,068; Sheep, 813; Total, 3,808.

The Central Kentucky Medical Association.

STANFORD, KY.—The regular quarterly meeting of this organization was held in the Old Fellows Hall in this place, Wednesday, the 17th inst. President William Hoffman, of Lancaster, in the Chair. The attendance was fair, and the debates lively.

Dr. Brown, of Hustonville, opened the regular debate with a lengthy paper on Diseases of the Rectum, their diagnosis and treatment, the subject selected at last meeting.

A paper on Erection and Division of the Os Uteri for the relief of dysmenorrhea and sterility, was read by Dr. Dunlap, of Danville.

The "Sectional Report" on Obstetrics and diseases of women and children, was read by Dr. Brougham, of Stanford.

Dr. Carpenter, of Crab Orchard, exhibited a living child with peculiar malformations of the body and limbs.

Dr. Bailey, of Stanford, read a paper on An Encephalitic Eruption following the use of Quinine.

Dr. Dunlap exhibited a Metastasis used in performing the operations alluded to in his paper. Also Fothergill's Hand-Book of Treatment and Parturition Reference-Book.

Committee to report on death of Dr. Rose, continued.

Dr. G. T. Erwin, Chairman of Committee on State Board of Health, reported and was continued.

Vote of thanks was extended to physicians of Lincoln, and to Old Fellows for use of their Hall.

The subject for discussion at next meeting is, Abortion, its causes and treatment. Dr. Cowan, of Danville, to lead.

The meeting then adjourned to meet in Danville on the 2nd Wednesday in January, 1878.

BOYLE COUNTY NEWS.

Danville.

October 17th, 1877.

The usual quiet which generally pervades our little city was broken on Monday night last, by a pistol shot. The inebriated case was promptly taken in charge by Policeman Frost.

Our young friend, Joseph Redford met with a serious accident one day last week while out hunting. We learn from the gentleman himself that he had discharged one barrel of his gun and attempted to shoot the other, it failing to explode. He then commenced loading the first barrel when the second vent of the contents entering his left hand and inflicting a severe injury.

Last Saturday night Mr. Robert Gentry shipped a lot of cattle to Cincinnati.

We noticed our friend, Mr. Muscoe Van Arsdale, of Moree, and his bride in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Ormsby, nee Miss Rose McGorty, now of Emmetsburg, Iowa, is visiting her father's family in this place.

COUNTY COURT—Owing to press of business we were unable to be upon the street only for a few minutes. About 400 head of cattle on the market, prices fair, according to quality of stock. A lot of Washington county cattle sold for 41c. Another lot of 15 were knocked down at $22.30 per head. Several droves withdrawn. Mules were scarce, commanding fair prices. Few or no horses.

It gives us pleasure to chronicle the nuptials of our fellow-townsmen, Mr. Jas. Kinnaird, Jr., and Miss Anna Bowman, of Moree, daughter of the late Col. A. H. Bowman. The ceremony was performed at Lexington, yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. John P. Bowman, by Rev. R. H. Kinnaird, the groom's brother. Attendees—Dr. Louis McMurtry and Miss Lucie Bowman; Atwood Bowman and Miss Jennie Bowman.

DEATH—At 10 A. M. to-day, at the residence of her husband, Mrs. Mollie S. wife of Col. C. H. Withrow, of the Military Academy in this place. EEO.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

Lancaster.

October 17th, 1877.

October has only to throw a tissue veil over the sun's face to make a charming November Summer.

Our numerous dignitaries seek occasional rest from labor with book and line on the banks of the Dix.

Protracted meeting in progress at Antioch. Rev. J. C. Randolph preached at the Presbyterian church both morning and evening of last Sunday. Elder J. L. Allen officiated in the afternoon at Pleasant Hill. Rev. Mr. Caperton, of the Western Recorder, delivered a discourse at the Baptist church on Friday night. The Roman Catholic and Methodist denominations preach alternately at the Court-house.

Croquet parties still hold on to the lawns, notwithstanding the clusters of dead leaves that impede the balls and evoke the gentle exclamations peculiar to the devotees of the game.

Quito has ranked among our distinguished foreigners this week.

Stanford Court claims attention from our baristers. Our own streets seem sadly derelict. We cannot even claim the prestige of tragedy since our Madison neighbors have so greedily snatched away the palm.

The little folks have whooping-cough and influenza; and, in fact, we meet but few adults who are not in fine condition to be despatched upon "Bulbary Street" and "By Barry Add." Too sudden a transition from Boreas to Zephyr.

On the 1st ult. were united in matrimony Miss Ann. Z. Taylor and Mr. Samuel C. Pollard. On the 2d, Miss Margie H. Hodge and Mr. Thos. Epps. On the 6th, Miss Annie Ford and Mr. Calvin Sayne. On the 11th, Miss Sarah Prewitt and Mr. Reuben A. Praythorn. On the 18th, Miss N. J. Davis and Mr. Jas. N. Stocker. On same date, Miss Lou A. Wolridge and Mr. Sam'l S. Simpson. Verily, the course of a great deal of true love seems to run smooth in this county.

Among our dashing street equipages is a graceful phaeton with pony attached, belonging to Master Charley Fishbe. Also a diminutive wagonette drawn by a pair of Emmeraldas, owned by

